

Table of Contents

Editorial	ix
Preface	xi
LEGAL AND POLITICAL PREMISES AND REMINISCENCE OF THE ADOPTION OF THE CONSTITUTION OF 3 MAY	1
ARTUR ŁAWNICZAK Was the Constitution of 3 May the First in Europe?	3
ŁUKASZ MAJEWSKI, KATARZYNA NOSEK The Constitution of 3 May. An Attempt to Change the Political Order of the First Republic – Too Late or Not Radical Enough	21
GRZEGORZ P. SŁOWIK, JAROSŁAW GŁUSZEK Union or Unitary State? Dilemmas of the Authors of the Constitution of 3 May Towards the Relationship between the Crown and the Grand Duchy of Lithuania	33
ADAM CHAJEWSKI The Mutual Pledge of the Two Nations – Durability and the Drama of Termination	47
EDUCATIONAL PREMISES AND REMINISCENCE OF THE ADOPTION OF THE CONSTITUTION OF 3 MAY	65
KATARZYNA DORMUS The Great Sejm and the Issue of Education	67
DANUTA KAMILEWICZ-RUCIŃSKA The Commission of National Education and the Constitution of 3 May – the Influence of Reforms on Contemporary Polish Education in Lithuania	83
KAROLINA WALANCIK The Right to Education in the Context of the Legal Regulations of Polish Constitutionalism	103
REMEMBRANCE OF THE ADOPTION OF THE CONSTITUTION OF 3 MAY	115
BEATA KURYLOWICZ The Linguistic Image of the Constitution of 3 May in Occasional Speeches Delivered on the 100th Anniversary of Its Adoption	117
KATARZYNA KOŚCIEWICZ Polish Writers and the Constitution of 3 May – The Anniversary Echoes of 1891 in Literature of the Personal Document	131
HENRYKA ILGIEWICZ The Celebrations of the Constitution of 3 May in Interwar Wilno	147
INDEX OF SURNAMES	167
Rocznik SNPL, Wilno, Litwa, 2021, T. 21A, s. vii	vii